Worship Service—5:30 PM

Sunday, September 13, 2009

Worship Services—7:45—8:45—11:15 AM

Here at Faith Community Lutheran...We almost always follow the traditional order of worship familiar to most Lutherans, but usually our services are a “blend” of old and new music. As Lutherans, we view ourselves as a church of “Word & Sacrament.” Therefore, “God’s Word” is held in high esteem as we follow the Scripture readings and the sermon with our Bibles open.

FCLC is among a growing number of Lutheran Churches committed to celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion every week, including the baptized of all ages. As we begin our worship, all are invited to “examine themselves” (1 Cor.11:28) during the Confession as we prepare to receive the Word and Holy Communion.

15th Weekend after Pentecost

September 12 & 13, 2009

Welcome, Guests!

We are grateful that you have remembered the Sabbath to keep it holy.

Discipleship Means Putting “His” Will First

In the Gospel lesson for today, we read; “But when Jesus turned and looked at his disciples, he rebuked Peter. ‘Get behind me, Satan!’ He said. ‘You do not have in mind the things of God, but the things of men.’ ” It seems the disciples, and others, had the false idea that the Messiah would clear out the Romans by force and help to establish a political independent Israel. Instead, Jesus fulfilled prophecy by putting His Father’s will and kingdom first, and here predicting His suffering and death on a cross.

In Psalm 116: 1-9, David responded to his own suffering with a song; “I love the Lord, for He heard my voice, He heard my cry for mercy. Because He turned His ear to me, I will call on Him as long as I live.” David acknowledges that his suffering did not, in any way, diminish his faith in God; instead God’s power and control over his life is proclaimed. I love how he shares his trials and encourages us in our faith. I cannot begin to count the times God has answered my prayers and given me hope and strength to carry on in times of affliction and uncertainty. One morning, I woke up in quiet desperation, feeling incapable of meeting the various needs and demands of our children and their ailing grandmother. Nearing tears and quite overwhelmed, I knelt by the dryer, praying for help. Immediately, I was filled with the warm tingling sense of the Spirit. This carried me through the day with a sense of love, joy, and compassion.

Dear Lord, ask and ye shall receive. Remind me to seek Your wisdom through prayer and quiet time each day that I may see truth clearly enabling me to choose wisely, “Thy will, (not my will), be done.” Humbly, I beseech Thee .

ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL

There are three options for Adult Sunday School Bible Classes offered beginning Rally Sunday and continuing through the Fall!

1. The Case for Faith with Pastor Bruce
After a few sessions completing a study of The Case for Christ, this class will probe Lee Strobel’s second book, The Case for Faith. It will emphasize ways to respond positively to various challenges to the Christian faith, such as the following: “Since evil and suffering exist, a loving God cannot.” “Since miracles contradict science, they can’t be true.” “Evolution explains life, so God isn’t needed.” “Why are innocent children killed?” “It’s offensive to say that Jesus is the only Way.” “A loving God would never torture people in hell.” “Church history is littered with oppression and violence.” Strobel’s book offers many helpful responses. Meets in Sunrise Room 226.
2. Bible Study of Acts with John Benson
The apostle Luke is credited with writing two books of the Bible. His first book is one of the four messages labeled “The Gospel of Christ”. The second book, which we refer to as Acts, has been termed the “Gospel of the Holy Spirit”. The study of Acts is being led this year by John Benson and involves specific passages every week with related questions, applications, and discussion in an informal, yet structured style. Feel free to drop in on this class and join in sharing faith and fellowship in a small group setting. Meets in room 232.
3. Digging Deeper with Pastor Dan
Dig deeper with Pastor Dan into the Bible texts of the day. Enjoy the big Bible discussion with a small group dynamic. Meets in Sunset Room 230.
4. Discovering the Call, Gifts and Fruits of the Holy Spirit with Lee Quaintance
Come and join us as we discover the call, gifts, and fruits of the Holy Spirit. Being challenged to walk the walk of Holy Spirit-led people, we found we needed to study and discuss the gifts of the Spirit, praying vs. speaking in tongues, what prophecy is and is not, discernment, words of knowledge, healing, and more. Meets in the Fireside Room.

BEGINNING SPANISH FOR ADULTS!

Come learn Spanish, using Christian music as an aid for learning. Beginning September 15th, classes will meet each Tuesday evening for 8 weeks from 7:00 PM — 8:00 PM in Room 232. To register, contact Suzanne O’Grady at 303-834-0965.
